

The Lady Is Calling ... Again!

By Larry and Mary Sue Eck

Many years ago, in 1991, we printed the Jerry Morin story, Our Lady's Troubadour, about the remarkable calling and mission of Jerry and Regina Morin. Ten years later, in 2001, we printed a second story entitled, A Profound Sense of Grace.

We watched the many years of their ministry as they labored tirelessly in giving witness anywhere they were called, with their lives and with their music that Jerry had begun receiving on his first trip to Medjugorje. Now Jerry has shared with us a remarkable story that appears to be the fulfillment of Blessed Mother's promise to him over twenty years ago. Preceding this article in this magazine, (see pages 28 and 33) we have reprinted our original stories so all of you readers can comprehend the awesomeness of the beginning and now the continuation of Jerry's journey.

For seventeen years, many of those accompanied by his wife, Regina, Jerry followed his personal calling to sing and give witness to the Virgin Mary's call to the world. Author and composer of the "To The World" music, Jerry and Respond Ministry sponsored the largest Marian Conference in Des Moines, Iowa, in 1992, that we have witnessed to date. That conference produced many miracles in people and is still talked about today.

However, with the demands and pressures of raising a family, Jerry believed he had to make a personal decision to close Respond Ministry and tend to his family duties. "It was one of the most painful decisions I've ever had to make," he began. "For the next four years I experienced a painful spiritual desert. This pain and sadness was due to not being in service to God and to Our Lady. I even felt, at times, that I had let them down."

In January of 2008, Regina was offered an associate vice-presidency position at a Midwestern University. Jerry, Regina, Mary (age 15), and Annie (age 11) all moved to the small town where the University is located. Jerry said he

Holy Spirit

May 25, 1998 – Dear children, today I call you, through prayer and sacrifice, to prepare yourselves for the coming of the Holy Spirit. Little children, this is a time of grace and so, again, I call you to decide for God the Creator. Allow Him to transform and change you. May your heart be prepared to listen to, and live, everything which the Holy Spirit has in His plan for each of you. Little children, allow the Holy Spirit to lead you on the way of truth and salvation towards eternal life. Thank you for having responded to my call.

then began to feel the peace and serenity of small town living. As a builder and developer of real estate, he thought it was time to build their last home. They had the home construction plans and the land and were within a month of beginning the construction. However, he often questioned if this was what God wanted him to do. He wanted to give God every opportunity to show him His will for his life. "If there was something else God had in store for me or wanted from me, I had to find out now," Jerry said. "My entire being surrendered to His Holy Will."

He developed a regular routine of daily Mass plus daily prayers to the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, to Our Lady, and to many of the saints. "I wanted to know only one thing: the Will of God for the rest of my life."

Jerry would make nightly visits to the small, humble, Mary Immaculate Church, which is open twenty-four hours a day. He was able to go into the Church late at night when everyone in his family was in bed at home. There he would spend hours praying and simply being quiet. Every night he asked God for the same thing: that through His Son, Jesus, He would show him what was important in his remaining years on earth. Jerry knew he must spend it helping his family, but was there something else? His heart never felt like his mission was completed before the children arrived. Our Lady's words, "Your songs will be heard throughout the world and in different languages" would echo in his head repeatedly. Even during the seventeen years of traveling far and wide to Churches and conferences, he never felt the mission had been fulfilled.

In his own words he explained: "One night, early in March of this year, as I sat quietly in the little Church in prayer, an explosive vision was brought to me with what I felt to be the force of a thousand angels. In an instant of infused grace, I was shown everything. It was so intense and surprising, I felt paralyzed there in the Church, while raptured in this vision. I don't know how long it lasted. I just sat for hours in tears. I then experienced an indescribable feeling of hope and joy spring up from my very soul. It was conveyed to me that the time for the fulfillment of Our Lady's words, heard over twenty years ago, would be NOW.

"The music would be manifested throughout the entire world and in different languages, NOW. I embraced the vision and listened intently to all the instructions,” Jerry continued. “I recall raising the thought, ‘I thought I was done.’ Then I was shown that not only was I not done, but everything I did before was only a preparation for this yet deeper calling. I was in tears of ecstasy in the knowledge that I would once again be in the service of Jesus and Mary.”

That night Our Lady showed Jerry that, at the age of ten, his heart was first consecrated to her. She brought his recollection back to the Holy Cross College Auditorium, in Massachusetts. All the Catholic schools gathered for that special day of consecration to the Immaculate Heart of Mary, for the conversion of Russia. Then he saw himself playing the trumpet to begin the event. He played the Ave Maria to the entire auditorium. Jerry had totally forgotten this through the years. He said he was awestruck when he was shown this. Our Lady then showed him that when he traveled to Medjugorje the first time, with his mother, an exchange of hearts between Our Lady and him took place. Her spirit infused him to go everywhere he was called. She then revealed to him that there would be another exchange of hearts during the coming Lenten Season [the one just past].

Our Lady explained to Jerry that she was very sad over the many self-serving, self-seeking, self-ingratiating, and even deceptive things that people pursue in her name. The true essence of what she is trying to accomplish is being polluted and perverted on a regular basis with greed and self-gratification. Then Scripture passages were presented to him: “What good is it to gain the whole world and lose your life in the end?” and “Many will say, ‘Lord, Lord’ ... but in the end I will say I do not know you.” Jerry says he knew immediately what was meant.

He asked how he would know this is all from her and wasn’t some deception. He was told it would be confirmed many times. She requested that he stay in her heart and in Jesus’ Heart at all times, through prayer, fasting, and daily Mass. Jerry says these events were almost immediately and very powerfully confirmed by his favorite saint, St. Therese of Lisieux. There isn’t enough space here to explain how that happened but Jerry received the rose he requested as a sign.

When he left Church on that early morning, he related, “I experienced an infusion that surpassed anything experienced since November 21, 1988. Jesus and Mary had answered my plea and I knew this was it. I sought the Lord and He answered again. I now follow, one step at a time, what they ask of me. There is no time for me to waste now. This is an extremely serious mission. There is a lot of work to do.” Regina has witnessed all this, plus St. Therese’s confirmation.

“One night, early in March of this year, as I sat quietly in the little Church in prayer, an explosive vision was brought to me with what I felt to be the force of a thousand angels. In an instant of infused grace, I was shown everything ...”

As Jerry prays to follow this faithfully, he and Regina ask others for their prayers for the protection of their family as he surrenders to God’s Holy Will.

“Our Lady wants to use our servants totheworld.com website as a unifying instrument for all her children, especially for the many who are discouraged and who feel they have no way to contribute,” Jerry told us. “This site is an invitation to ALL who give witness to what God and Our Lady have done, in ANYWAY, in their lives. Any servant can now give witness to the whole world.”

Jerry said he has been shown many who have turned their backs and are following paths of deception and they need to humble themselves, ask for forgiveness, and become true servants of Our Lady. Jerry said she wants true devotion, now hypocrisy; true heart, not self-service; true surrender, not agendas. She wants us to forgive each other for the many hurts that have been inflicted and encountered. “Forgiveness is the greatest block to not allowing God to work in our lives. The mission, music, personal witness and website are all being directed by Jesus and Mary. We need to surrender all our works to them to use for their purpose.” Jerry concluded, “We ask all servants who join us to consecrate themselves to the Immaculate Heart of Mary and the Sacred Heart of Jesus daily. It is one of the daily prayers on the website.”

Bill Kuhn, a good friend of Jerry, who is mentioned in the book, To The World – A Conversion Story – with his own conversion story, questioned Jerry about the meaning of the words Jerry heard. How and when would these words be fulfilled? In the past, Jerry and Bill’s efforts always stopped short, in frustration. Bill and Jerry now share the vision that Jerry explains here. Together, they have made a full commitment in Servants to the World and consecrate all their work to the Immaculate Heart of Mary and the Sacred Heart of Jesus. Jerry was instructed to offer his book as a free audio download. The website, servantstotheworld.com was announced to the world on March 25, the Feast of the Annunciation. Jerry was unaware until someone reminded him, in an e-mail, of the significance of this feast day.

Jerry and Bill now believe that with the grace of God, the music will now go out to every country, in every language possible. Jerry said, "Our first release, at the request of Our Lady, was At The Cross, in both music-video and message-music-video form, which can be viewed on servantstotheworld.com or on Youtube, and is now available for the whole world to see." Jerry was shown that a new music-video and message-music-video will be released on the 25th of every month. The song The Servant was scheduled for release in April, Live The Message, The Lady Of Medjugorje, Let Them Know The Reasons, You're My Lady, and many others will follow. A new music and message version music-video is scheduled for nearly every song in the "To The World I, II and III" collections, with every release scheduled for foreign translations. All of these videos are easily passed on, one to another, through e-mail. "We have been set up with one of the largest computer servers in Iowa to collect e-mails for this purpose. If we are sent e-mails, those e-mail addresses will be sent all future video releases, directly to their computers," Jerry promised.

Right now Jerry has decided that if he is ever to be seen or heard in concert again, it will only be when Jesus and Mary decide to send him out again. Until then, he will stay on his knees and follow St. Louis de Monfort and St.

Therese's Little Way, in giving everything he has for his mission, as well as tending to his family. "You see," he declares, "all that is important is that at the end of my life I hear Jesus call me 'good and faithful servant.'" He says he's been shown that countless people will be led out of their own desert and into conversion and re-conversion through the Servants to the World mission – a humbling charge.

Jerry and Regina's plans to build their new home are on hold for now. He believes Our Lady wants him "to help build an army of true faithful," first. Our Lady had Jerry visualize a special rosary, which is to be developed for the To The World mission. It is a seven virtues mission rosary. Each of the seven decades, comprising seven prayers, are in different colors. The beautiful colors are to signify Our Lady's beautiful love for all her children in the world. The decades are separated by a world globe. Jerry says it is lovely and he hopes it will be developed by the time this article is in print. Our Lady wants the cross of the rosary made out of wood, as a reminder that Jesus was nailed to a tree, and that our sins continue to nail Him. The corpus is missing, to signify Jesus' Resurrection and that it is His spirit and Our Lady's spirit that will lead the mission.

Jerry says when he saw the rosary, he also saw a stadium filled with people all praying this rosary. This stadium has been a recurring vision for many years.

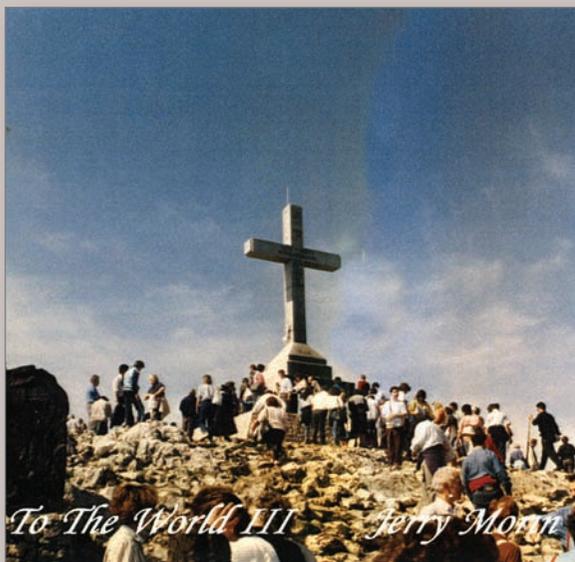

He says it was an awesome sight. The rosary will be made available to everyone on the website, at Jerry's cost. It is to be prayed every day for developing the virtues in each servant's life, and for the fulfillment of Our Lady's To The World mission. All servants have a role to play in this mission.

Jerry believes all of this leads to the consecration to Our Lady's Immaculate Heart and the Sacred Heart of Jesus in huge forums. "It will be essential and crucial for all to be in The Immaculate Heart and the Sacred Heart as these critical and dangerous times now unfold. I pray that each of you comprehend the purpose for this story, that you sincerely develop a regular routine of prayer each and every day, and seriously make a decision for God and decide to live Our Lady's messages."

In conclusion, Jerry invites all who have the courage and the heart of a servant to join them. He reminds us of Our Lady's words in Medjugorje, "All have a part to play in the great plan that is unfolding for the salvation of mankind."

Jerry and Servants to the World mission are under close spiritual direction. Jerry knows that the events of Medjugorje are under close scrutiny and have not yet been approved by the Church. He unconditionally surrenders and recognizes that the final authority regarding apparitions in the Catholic Church rests with the Holy See of Rome, to whose judgment he willingly submits. ■

To The World CD's – I, II, and III

To order Jerry Morin's CD's, To The World I, II, and III, send $15.00 for each, plus $2.00 shipping to the DuPage Marian Center, 317 West Ogden Avenue, Westmont, IL 60559. Specify CD I, II, or III.

Songs on To The World I: This first CD contains the wonderful first song, "The Lady is Calling," given to Jerry on his first trip to Medjugorje. It is hauntingly beautiful, and has become our favorite Marian hymn. We chose this song as background music on our videos years ago. Many others did the same through the years and Jerry never charged anyone to use it.

Songs on To The World II: This second CD contains the song that most touches people's hearts, "At The Cross." The melody is beautiful, Regina's voice touches your heart, and the words touch your very soul.

Songs on To The World III: Our favorite song on this CD is not one of Jerry's. It is a favorite of many, "I've Just Seen Jesus." Jerry and Regina sing it as a duet. Also, Jerry sings the Ave Maria and then plays it on his trumpet, which is soul-touching to hear.
